

Follow-up Questions for Doc Holladay Interview

1. Did you know that at one time in police history persons were being arrested for prostitution even though they were most likely trafficked persons?
2. Human trafficking has been an issue for a long time. Did you know it was happening so close to home? In Arkansas? In Little Rock?
3. Have you ever seen or suspected someone of being in a forced labor situation? In Arkansas?
4. In 2013 the first human trafficking laws were passed in Arkansas; that seems pretty recent. Why do you think human trafficking wasn't addressed until recently?
5. Law enforcement trainings in Arkansas have changed to include education about human trafficking. How do you feel this has impacted human trafficking in Arkansas?
6. Do you see a way to help those who may not want to come forward about being trafficked in the forced labor industry?
7. How can we help?
8. How can we show love and peace to those who are healing from the life of human trafficking?